Hong Kong Company Incorporation Package #HKLLC01 Company Incorporation Only

Hong Kong private limited liability company incorporation package for entrepreneurs who CAN provide their own Company Secretary and Registered Office.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

1. Hong Kong has abolished the registration capital duty effective from 1 June 2012. As such, our fees for registration of company in Hong Kong will apply to all registrations regardless the amount of authorised capital after that date.
2. The new Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of Hong Kong Laws) will be taking effect from 3 March 2014. Starting from that date, all new companies registered under the new ordinance must appoint an individual director. Companies registered under the current ordinance with a sole corporate director must appoint an individual director within 6 months after the new ordinance comes into effect.
3. The New Companies Ordinance also abolished the par value concept. Under the existing legislation, companies' shares have a par value (also known as the nominal value), representing the minimum price at which such shares can generally be issued. The new CO adopts a mandatory system of no-par value for shares. The no-par system will apply to all shares of Hong Kong incorporated companies whether issued before or after the commencement date of the new Companies Ordinance.
